OUR PURPOSE

Love God • Love Each Other • Be God's Love in the World

At Danville Congregational Church we welcome you to a progressive spiritual community that is open and affirming, celebrates differences, and encourages alternate views. We explore the Bible with curiosity and enthusiasm, taking it seriously but not literally. Taking Christ's call passionately to love our neighbor, we extend our faith into action for the betterment of all. Wherever you are on life's journey, we offer you a place of peace and hope.

Danville Congregational Church is an Open and Affirming church, welcoming all of God's people – of diverse race, gender, sexual orientation, family status, economic condition, and physical, mental and emotional ability.

A NOTE TO WORSHIPERS

Wearing a mask is mandatory. Please sit in designated pews as directed by the ushers and move to the center of the row, so those who come in after you can more easily be seated. The left-hand section of pews as you enter the sanctuary has been designated for those who are free of scents and perfumes. Please refer to the list of in-person guidelines on the inside back page.

Please silence your cell phone when you enter the sanctuary.

If you would like to use one of our listening assistance devices, please see the sound technician in the back of the sanctuary.

Following worship, please wait for an usher to dismiss your row before you depart the sanctuary. All are welcome to join us on the patio for a time of coffee, conversation, and community.

First time visitor? Welcome to Danville Congregational Church! We are glad you are here with us today. If you are interested in getting additional information about Danville Congregational Church, after the worship service, in the narthex, you will find someone holding a red bag. In the bag you will find helpful information about the church. We look forward to meeting you!

*The DCC sanctuary is available for meditation and quiet prayer during the week during normal business hours.
Please feel free to come by any time — enter through the office.*

Then Pilate entered the headquarters[a] again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?" Pilate replied, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here." Pilate asked him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."."

LITANY OF SENDING & BLESSING
as Pastor Eric begins his sabbatical

INTRODUCTION

Amy: Friends in Christ: Today we give thanks to God for Pastor Eric and ask for God's blessings as we send him for Sabbatical rest. We ask God to bless this intentional time of growth both for him and for our congregation, and we ask that God bring him back to our community refreshed and nourished with God's Spirit as we seek to Glorify God with our gifts to serve all.

READINGS

Kim: A reading from Exodus: "Remember the Sabbath day, and keep it holy."
And again from Exodus: "I am going to send an angel in front of you, to guard you on the way and to bring you to the place that I have prepared."

Bette: A reading from the Gospel according to Luke: "Now, more than ever, the word about Jesus spread abroad; many crowds would gather to hear him and to be cured of their diseases. But he would withdraw to out-of-the-way places and pray.

SABBATICAL LEAVE-TAKING LITANY

Kim: We wish Godspeed to Pastor Eric as he begins his sabbatical.

Bette: As you journey, God dwell with you while we are away from one another.

Pastor Eric: God's blessing on you while I am gone from you.

Amy: God fill you with the Holy Spirit as you study and visit new surroundings.

Pastor Eric: I thank God for my ministry with you over these almost 7 years and I thank you for the gift of this renewal time you've given to me.

Bette: We pray that you experience the gift of spiritual growth in your journey and that you return renewed and energized for ministry.

Pastor Eric: I pray that you, too, might be renewed and energized to serve in God's name.

All: We send you with our blessing.

Pastor Eric: God's peace be with you as I leave to walk in new places, to renew my spirit, my ministry, my life.

Amy: We now also welcome our Associate Pastor Rev. Todd who will be our spiritual leader and take care of all our pastoral needs during Pastor Eric's absence. We pray for you and look for your guidance and leadership, as we look at our own identity during this mutual time of renewal.

BLESSING

All: We bring before you Holy One, our brother in Christ, our Pastor and friend, Eric Sherlock. We send him on sabbatical with our earnest prayers, asking your blessing upon him, and upon this congregation that he serves.

Kim: Spirit of the living God, bless Pastor Eric during his sabbatical. Renew him for ministry through this time set aside for reflection and study, the refreshment of a break from daily tasks and routine, and the excitement of new learning and direction. Grace him with your presence and keep him steadfast in the faith while we are gone one from another.

CONGREGATIONAL LAYING ON OF HANDS

Pastor Todd: You are invited to extend a hand of blessing toward Pastor Eric.

Let us pray:

Eternal God, you fill us with every good thing and your steadfast love endures forever.

We thank you for Pastor Eric and for our life together at DCC.

As he departs for Sabbatical, send him forth with your blessing, fill him with your Spirit, and bring him again into our presence with renewed life. Through Jesus Christ, our Rock, our Strength, our Redeemer, we pray.

All: Amen.

*CLOSING HYMN

Canticle of the Turning

BENEDICTION

Pastor Eric: Beloved, hear these words from the Apostle Paul to Christ's people in Corinth. Let them be my word to you as well as God's:

"Finally brothers and sisters, goodbye. Be cheerful.

Keep things in good repair. Keep your spirits up. Think in harmony.

Be agreeable. Do all that, and the God of love and peace will be with you for sure. The amazing grace of Jesus Christ, the extravagant love of God, the intimate friendship of the Holy Spirit, be with all of you."

All: God below you, God before you and behind you,
God everywhere you turn and within you. Amen.

REMOVAL OF STOLE

Pastor Todd: The primary and unique symbol for Pastors is our stole. It points to our being set apart by the Church for Word and Sacrament ministry. We will now remove Pastor Eric's stole as a symbol of the beginning of his time of rest and renewal and our mutual commitment to prayer for one another during this time of rest and growth. Amy and Kim, you are invited to remove Pastor Eric's stole and place it on the altar.

Greening the Sanctuary

After worship today, we will gather together to “Green the Sanctuary.” We are also inviting our kiddos to be a part of the process of getting the sanctuary ready for Advent. After worship, we will gather in the sanctuary for an interactive time together learning about and setting up the Advent wreath and changing out the banner with help from our friends Judy and Randy.

Editorial Note: Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, announcements for next week's e-News and bulletin are due Monday by noon. Thank you!

COVID Safety Guidelines at DCC

On November 1, Contra Costa County adjusted its mask mandate for certain settings within the county. DCC has reviewed the adjustment and will continue to require masking indoors at all church sponsored events, including Sunday worship, out of an abundance of care and caution for our most vulnerable, including children who are not yet vaccinated. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Happening Today
Thanksgiving Offering

Each year our Thanksgiving offering is a chance for us to express our gratitude for the blessings we have received throughout the year by making a special gift to people who are less fortunate. This year, the Outreach Commission has designated our Thanksgiving offering to be shared equally between the Alameda County Community Food Bank and the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano, two of the key providers of food assistance in our region. The Food Banks are essential services providing a lifeline to our neighbors hardest hit by COVID-19 and the ongoing economic impacts. In response to the increased need during the pandemic, the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano and the Alameda County Community Food Bank have increased the quantities of food distributed by 50% to 65% over pre-COVID numbers. Addressing the immediate nutritional needs of children, adults and seniors is core to their missions, and few organizations meet those needs as efficiently as they do.

The Alameda County Community Food Bank partners with more than 200 food pantries, hot-meal programs, senior centers and other non-profits to distribute millions of pounds of food every year, enough to feed more than 70,000 people each day. Each of these “partner agencies” has its own mission, tailoring their services to meet the unique needs of the community. Eden UCC’s “Comida Para Cherryland” food pantry is one of those partner agencies, as is Open Heart Kitchen, based in Livermore and serving the Tri-Valley area.

An astounding 1 in 9 residents turn to the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano for emergency and supplemental food. The Food Bank strives to serve all people experiencing hunger or food insecurity in Contra Costa and Solano Counties and commits to never turn anyone away. They distribute over 3 million pounds of food per month into the community by operating their own free food programs each week and by partnering with 260 local nonprofit agencies to support their hunger-fighting efforts. These partner agencies include Hope Solutions, Loaves & Fishes of Contra Costa, and Shelter, Inc.

Please join us in thanking God for the many blessings we have received by making a Thanksgiving offering to help our neighbors who are food insecure. We will be receiving our Thanksgiving offering during worship today, but of course your offering will be welcome at any time. Please write “Thanksgiving Offering” on your check made out to DCC and place it in the offering basket, using a Thanksgiving Offering envelope from the pew rack if you wish. To make your offering online, go to the DCC Donations page and select Outreach Donations / Thanksgiving Offering. Have a happy Thanksgiving!
