

I-SRV

Interfaith
San Ramon Valley

Proclamation

Whereas, the people of the San Ramon Valley support one another when we are hurting, and today is no exception; and

Whereas, many of us cannot begin to understand the depths of anguish and pain caused by the inexcusable accusations made against people of the Jewish faith in flyers passed around our community; and

Whereas, the anguish, suffering, and pain caused by any form of hate are reverberating throughout our country; and

Whereas, we, Interfaith of San Ramon Valley (I-SRV), as members of diverse faith communities, condemn any and all forms of hatred in our community; and

Whereas, we stand with all members of the entire San Ramon Valley community and with people from all faith practices, all cultures and all ethnicities; and

Whereas, at this moment in time, we especially stand in solidarity with members of our Jewish community who have been the target of recent flyers;

Now, Therefore, the Interfaith of San Ramon Valley, California, does hereby proclaim its solidarity with those who reject hate and embrace love, peace and acceptance.

Dated this 26th day of February, 2022.

Baha'i Community

Siamak Danandeh

Beth Chaim Congregation

Rabbi Dan Goldblatt
Naomi Ehrlich

Danville Congregational Church

Rev. Todd Atkins-Whitley

Hope Lutheran Church of Rossmoor

Robin Kanno

Interfaith Council Contra Costa

Rev. Wil McGarvey

Peace Lutheran Church

Rev. Steve Harms
Howard Barto

SRV Islamic Center

Aquila Aswat
Sabra Suharwardy

SRV United Methodist Church

Rev. Dr. Kim Risedorph

San Damiano Retreat Center

Lisa Briones
Jim Greer

St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church

Rev. Raymond Sacca
Joy Addiego
Rosemarie McKenney

St. Timothy's Episcopal Church

Rev. Todd Bryant
Rev. Susan Geissler-O'Neil
Kari Doolittle