WE GATHER TO WORSHIP GOD

WELCOME

Rev. Lauren Jewett

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Lily Sonnemann

All are invited to rise in body, mind, or spirit.*

One: Holy one, there are times when you call us to put things in order and clear out the cobwebs so that your vision for us is clearer to see.

All: Help us to have eyes to see the path you have laid out for us.

One: God, there are times when you call us to quiet our overstimulating surroundings so we can listen better.

All: Help us discern your voice amidst our closet clutter.

One: God, There are times when we must pause our work in the wider community and attend to the work that needs doing in our own.

All: Help us to enjoy this time serving our own church community.

One: God, there are times when you call us to make space for new things!

All: Help us to honor what is past, let go of what no longer serves us, and imagine what we can do together!

*OPENING HYMN

Awake, Awake to Love and Work

#89

1 A - wake, a - wake to love and work! The lark is in the sky;
2 Come, let your voice be one with theirs, shout with their shout of praise;
3 To give and give, and give a - gain, as God's own grace is free;

the fields are wet with dia - mond dew; The worlds a - wake to cry
See how the gi - ant sun soars up, God's gift for all your days!
To spend your-self nor count the cost; To serve most glo - rious - ly their prais-es to the Fount of Life; Christ Je - sus pass-es by.

So let the love of Je - sus come and set your soul a - blaze, the God who gave all worlds that are, and all that are to be.

CLOSING HYMN

We Are One in the Spirit

We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord;
We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord;
And we pray that all unity will one day be restored.

Chorus:

And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love,
Yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love.

We will work with each other, we will work side by side;
We will work with each other, we will work side by side;
And we'll guard each person's dignity and save each person's pride.
(Chorus)

We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand;
We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand;
And together we'll spread the news that God is in our land.
(Chorus)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

With Deepest Sympathy to the Family of Eleanor Dent

With deep sympathy, we announce that Eleanor Dent transitioned peacefully from this life on Wednesday, August 20th. Please keep Syd, Leslie, Rande, Liam, and their family in your prayers during this time.

Eleanor moved up here from her home and friends of over 57 years in the Pasadena area in 2022. Syd and Leslie brought her to DCC and became a fixture in the first two rows. Our church provided its usual extravagant welcome. She enjoyed the Time With Children and was sometimes known to be a gallery participant. She sang the old tunes with gusto (if not good harmony) and made valiant attempts at newer material. She enjoyed the music so much, she would sometimes sing along with the choir and their anthem. She also appreciated the interesting and well thought out sermons of Eric and Todd. After sermons, she would frequently say, in a voice loud enough for Eric or Todd or one of our fine guest preachers to hear, "That was good!" But her favorite part was the passing of the peace. Everyone greeted her with such enthusiasm from young kiddos to well-seasoned folk. She truly felt a part of the church and loved by it. Leslie, Rande and I are truly grateful DCC gave her such a community. Sundays were her favorite day of the week. And DCC helped her feel like she had found a new home.

A Celebration of Life will be planned for later in the year. Donations can be made to Hope Hospice, The Alzheimer's Association or the DCC Endowment Fund. Thank you again for showing someone who we are.

Condolences to the Prickett family

DCC member Mary Ann Prickett passed away on August 2nd at the age of 91. She worshipped regularly at DCC until her move to a local care facility eight years ago.

A native of Kansas, Mary Ann grew up in a rural area near Chico where her father was a veterinarian. She graduated from Stanford University, where her life-long fandom of collegiate basketball, especially for the Stanford women's team, flourished. She moved to San Francisco where she worked for American Airlines and met her husband, Ward.

Following their move to Connecticut Mary Ann was employed by Pratt Whitney, where she eventually became branch manager of their credit union. In later years Mary Ann and Ward moved to Pacific Grove where she continued her life-long involvement in the life of the church, including serving as moderator of council and a delegate to regional conferences. In 1997 Mary Ann, now widowed, moved to San Ramon to be closer to family.

She is survived by her son Kevin, daughter-in-law Angela, and granddaughters Audrey and Ashley. A graveside service in Kansas was held earlier this month.

Our deepest condolences to Kevin, Angela, Audrey, Ashley and their family.

New Weekly Spotlight –Meet Our Deacons

This Week – Carol Bassett

DCC's deacons, aka the Diaconate, are appointed by the Church Council "to aid and advise the Minister(s) and the Council, to stand with and listen to persons in the congregation, and to provide special ministries of reconciliation, comfort, and inspiration. The Diaconate consists of nine persons plus those whom the congregation has elected deacon for life. This Week, we spotlight Carol Bassett.

My Husband, John and I joined DCC in early 1991. Not long after, our son Matthew was born. Due to birth complications, he would spend his first six months of life at Children's Hospital Oakland. I firmly believe that the many prayers from DCC are the reason he was able to come home early in 1992. Matthew and I spent his first year at home in isolation. We were visited by a wonderful Diaconate member, Ilo Maynard. She helped ease a difficult time. In April 2020 my husband passed away. DCC, its pastors and members have been and continue to be my rock. I am so blessed and grateful.

I served on the Diaconate twice before 2024-2025. I began helping set up Communion, even before becoming a member of the Diaconate. During my time as a Deacon, I have served as Clerk, Communion Coordinator and was the back-up for Acts of Kindness. I have served on the Building & Grounds Commission, on and off since 1997, and currently since 2021. I have served on the Worship Commission twice and am currently a member. I have been an Emmaus team Leader since 2021.

Thank you for asking me to be a Deacon. It is an important part of my life and the life of the Church.
