

DANVILLE

Congregational Church
United Church of Christ

Thirteenth Sunday after Pentecost
September 7, 2025

OUR PURPOSE

Love God • Love Each Other • Be God's Love in the World

Danville Congregational Church acknowledges that the land this house of worship sits upon is the traditional, unceded land of the Ohlone and Bay Miwok people. We offer this land acknowledgment as a sign of respect, with the knowledge that this land was sacred before we ever arrived.

At Danville Congregational Church, we welcome you to a progressive spiritual community that is open and affirming, celebrates differences, and encourages alternate views. We explore the Bible with curiosity and enthusiasm, taking it seriously but not literally. Taking Christ's call passionately to love our neighbor, we extend our faith into action for the betterment of all. Wherever you are on life's journey, we offer you a place of peace and hope.

Danville Congregational Church is an Open and Affirming church, welcoming all of God's people—of diverse race, gender, sexual orientation, family status, economic condition, and physical, mental, and emotional ability.

A NOTE TO WORSHIPERS

Please take note of the emergency exits around you and locate the nearest one to you.

At DCC, wearing a mask during worship or inside the building is optional; please do whatever is comfortable for you. Please be aware of others' personal space and space yourselves out in the sanctuary accordingly. Please invite consent before shaking hands and hugging. The left-hand section of pews as you enter the sanctuary has been designated for those who are free of scents and perfumes.

Please silence your cell phone when you enter the sanctuary.

If you would like to use one of our listening assistance devices, please see the sound technician in the back of the sanctuary.

First-time visitor? Welcome to Danville Congregational Church! We are glad you are here with us today. Please register your attendance in the Blue Pew Book located in the pew and share whatever information you would like us to have about you. If you are interested in learning more about DCC, please see one of the pastors after worship in the narthex (lobby) or contact Joyce Klassen (joyce.klassen@comcast.net) our Community Life Commissioner. We look forward to meeting you!

The DCC sanctuary is available for meditation and quiet prayer during the week during normal business hours.

Please feel free to come by any time—enter through the office.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Bill Williams

All are invited to rise in body, mind, or spirit.*

One: Come, each and every one, young and old, tired, scared, or weighed down.

Many: We rest in the loving hands of God—hands that formed us, that guide us, that never let us go.

Those hands are strong like a potter, tender like a child.

One: In joy and in sorrow, in strength and in weakness, we are welcomed and shaped, loved into all that we can become.

Many: We gather to worship and give thanks for all in our community and in our lives who heal and bless us, who make real for us the compassion and sustaining love of Jesus.

One: Let us lift our hearts and voices to God who knows us in our deepest places. Let us welcome the Holy Spirit into this place.

Many: In gratitude, wonder, and joy, we join to pray, sing, and feast so that we might work together to create a more just and peaceful world!

*PASSING OF THE PEACE

Bill

One: Peace be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Let us greet one another and pass the peace of Christ

Tune: BEACH SPRING 8.7.8.7.D.
 The Sacred Harp, 1844
 Harm. The New Century Hymnal, 1992

In this hymn, commissioned by an Episcopal parish in Virginia for the celebration of its tricentennial, Carl P. Daw Jr., utilized a familiar phrase from Isaac Watts' "Joy to the World," which was the motto for the celebration: "Repeat the sounding joy."

O God, you have searched me and known me.
You know when I sit down and when I rise up;
 you discern my thoughts from far away.
You search out my path and my lying down
 and are acquainted with all my ways.
Even before a word is on my tongue,
 O God, you know it completely.
You hem me in, behind and before,
 and lay your hand upon me.
Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
 it is so high that I cannot attain it.

Where can I go from your spirit?
 Or where can I flee from your presence?
If I ascend to heaven, you are there;
 if I make my bed in Sheol, you are there.
If I take the wings of the morning and settle at the farthest limits of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me,
 and your right hand shall hold me fast.
If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me,
 and night wraps itself around me," even the darkness is not dark to you;
 the night is as bright as the day,
 for darkness is as light to you.
For it was you who formed my inward parts;
 you knit me together in my mother's womb.
I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made Wonderful are your works;
that I know very well.
 My frame was not hidden from you,
when I was being made in secret,
 intricately woven in the depths of the earth.
Your eyes beheld my unformed substance.
In your book were written
 all the days that were formed for me, when none of them as yet existed.
How weighty to me are your thoughts, O God!
 How vast is the sum of them!
I try to count them—they are more than the sand;
 I come to the end—I am still with you.

"What is REAL?" asked the Rabbit one day, when they were lying side by side near the nursery fender, before Nana came to tidy the room. "Does it mean having things that buzz inside you and a stick-out handle?"

"Real isn't how you are made," said the Skin Horse. "It's a thing that happens to you. When a child loves you for a long, long time, not just to play with, but REALLY loves you, then you become Real."

"Does it hurt?" asked the Rabbit.

"Sometimes," said the Skin Horse, for he was always truthful. "When you are Real you don't mind being hurt."

"Does it happen all at once, like being wound up," he asked, "or bit by bit?"

"It doesn't happen all at once," said the Skin Horse. "You become. It takes a long time. That's why it doesn't happen often to people who break easily, or have sharp edges, or who have to be carefully kept."

"Generally, by the time you are Real, most of your hair has been loved off, and your eyes drop out and you get loose in the joints and very shabby. But these things don't matter at all, because once you are Real you can't be ugly, except to people who don't understand."

Margery Williams, 1881-1944.

Loving Hands

Pastor Carol

ANTHEM

A Heartsong Blessing

Joseph M. Martin

*Let our breath be gentle wind.
Let our ears be of those who listen,
Let our hearts be love songs for the earth.
Let all our spirits serve,
bringing hope and peace to all the world.*

*Let our minds be filled with hope.
Let our hands reach out in kindness.
Let our eyes, with interest and respect, seek health and happiness.
Let our souls be filled with wonder.*

*Let us join our hands in this moment.
We are one in heart and voice.
Let us touch the future together.
As we pray and play, as we live each day,
we can change the world with love.*

We can change the world with love.

Offertory

like a child

Daniel Charles Damon

like a child love would send to reveal and to mend, like a child and a friend, Jesus comes like a child we may find claiming heart soul and mind, like a child strong and kind, Jesus comes.

like a child we will meet, ragged clothes dirty feet
like a child on the street, Jesus comes like a child we once knew coming back into view, like a child born anew, Jesus comes.

like a child born to pray and to show us the way,
like a child on the street, Jesus comes
like a child we receive all the love one can conceive, like a child we believe, Jesus comes.

*Doxology Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
 Praise God, all creatures here below;
 Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
 Creator, Christ and Holy Ghost. Amen

New Weekly Spotlight – Meet Our Deacons This Week – Syd Dent

We are continuing our spotlight of DCC's deacons, aka the Diaconate. This week, we spotlight, Syd Dent.

I grew up in Pasadena, California. I lived a half mile away from the mountains and an hour away from the beach and spent most of my recreational time outdoors hiking or riding the waves. I went to UC Berkeley where I met Leslie in the dormitory. Having graduated from Cal and UNC with degrees in geology and geochemistry and I took that knowledge to become a science teacher to middle school for ten years. From there I went into the technology industry and taught customers how to get the most out of their really expensive software. Both Leslie and I are now retired. I spend my time working in the garden, hiking, cooking, doing photography and, when time allows, traveling near and far.

When I embarked on the teaching journey I was recruited to assist with a church youth group in Livermore. When we switched churches to DCC, Alan Kelchner found out about my teaching and youth background and quickly enlisted me to assist with DCC's youth group. Which I have been assisting since. Over the years, in addition to working with the youth, I have been a moderator, financial secretary, a member of a pastor search committee and I am now currently on the Diaconate. I have appreciated DCC's willingness to hear all voices in difficult times. DCC has helped me understand my faith and place in God's amazing world. And I am grateful and humbled by all that DCC is becoming.

- Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays
- San Francisco Immigration Courts
- Concord Immigration Court

- Art, Music & Witness

Can You Show Up?

Your presence matters!

bit.ly/CourtVigiVolunteer

You are invited to join your voice with others from the East Bay faith community as a peaceful and welcoming presence at the Concord Immigration Court any Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday during vigils organized by the Interfaith Movement for Human Integrity. Leaders and members of the Contra Costa County and Alameda County faith communities provide leadership and volunteer at these vigils. Morning sessions are from 7:30am–9:30am; afternoons from 11:45am–2:00pm.

See the flier below and this web page for more info and to join a vigil. Although the posted information mentions vigils only through August, they are, in fact, being scheduled through October. Contact Doug Leich with any questions.

There is free “visitor” parking at the courthouse at 1855 Gateway Blvd. But you may also choose to park in the shopping center lot on Willow Pass Road (near Brazilian Steakhouse and Gratitude Coffee). Cross Willow Pass Rd and walk towards the large building that houses the courts. You will see a few folks wearing stoles, holding signs, and singing on the “island” on Clayton Road between the parking garage and the building containing the immigration courts.

Join us at the gorgeous Peace Lutheran Church to experience an intimate concert featuring the Arab jazz funk vibe of The ShadowBand, with Naima Shalhoub (keys and vocals), Aaron Kierbel (percussion), Chris Trinidad (keys) and Tarik "Excentrik" Kazaleh (oud, guitar, strings). The ShadowBand will take you on a spiritual journey as we raise funds to support Prosthetics for Palestine.

The war on Gaza has left tens of thousands—especially children—without mobility. Prosthetics for Palestine is a grassroots initiative led by dedicated volunteer community members working alongside Physicians for Palestine. We are committed to addressing the exponentially growing needs of amputees in Gaza and throughout Palestine. We are responding by delivering cutting-edge, 3D-printed prosthetics and building permanent clinics and manufacturing labs in the West Bank and in Gaza.

With each limb, we restore dignity, independence, and the chance to live again.

Please join us for a beautiful evening in community with one another.

Every dollar you donate goes directly toward prosthetics, training, and healing.

- General admission tickets: $40
- Child admission tickets: $20
- Tickets include concert entry and light refreshments.
- Vendors will include unique Palestinian art, ceramics and textiles.
