OUR PURPOSE

Love God • Love Each Other • Be God's Love in the World

Danville Congregational Church acknowledges that the land this house of worship sits upon is the traditional, unceded land of the Ohlone and Bay Miwok people. We offer this land acknowledgment as a sign of respect, with the knowledge that this land was sacred before we ever arrived.

At Danville Congregational Church, we welcome you to a progressive spiritual community that is open and affirming, celebrates differences, and encourages alternate views. We explore the Bible with curiosity and enthusiasm, taking it seriously but not literally. Taking Christ's call passionately to love our neighbor, we extend our faith into action for the betterment of all. Wherever you are on life's journey, we offer you a place of peace and hope.

Danville Congregational Church is an Open and Affirming church, welcoming all of God's people—of diverse race, gender, sexual orientation, family status, economic condition, and physical, mental, and emotional ability.

A NOTE TO WORSHIPERS

Please take note of the emergency exits around you and locate the nearest one to you.

At DCC, wearing a mask during worship or inside the building is optional; please do whatever is comfortable for you. Please be aware of others' personal space and space yourselves out in the sanctuary accordingly. Please invite consent before shaking hands and hugging. The left-hand section of pews as you enter the sanctuary has been designated for those who are free of scents and perfumes.

Please silence your cell phone when you enter the sanctuary.

If you would like to use one of our listening assistance devices, please see the sound technician in the back of the sanctuary.

First-time visitor? Welcome to Danville Congregational Church! We are glad you are here with us today. Please register your attendance in the Blue Pew Book located in the pew and share whatever information you would like us to have about you. If you are interested in learning more about DCC, please see one of the pastors after worship in the narthex (lobby) or contact Joyce Klassen (joyce.klassen@comcast.net) our Community Life Commissioner. We look forward to meeting you!

The DCC sanctuary is available for meditation and quiet prayer during the week during normal business hours.

Please feel free to come by any time—enter through the office.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Wilson Jackson

All are invited to rise in body, mind, or spirit.*

One: Our worship is not bound by time or place.

It is a continual offering to God wherever we find ourselves.

In our worship we hear the voices of mothers, grandmothers, and beloved aunties.

Many: They teach us to love, serve, be strong and offer thanksgiving.

One: May we raise daughters and sons who know that God is present with them from sunrise to sunset, faithful through each moment and each change.

Many: Jesus is our companion, teacher and brother, having lived with courage the life we are now called to live.

One: The Holy Spirit bids us fill this place with joy and thanksgiving.

Many: Let every heart sing with gratitude for the gifts of this day.

*PASSING OF THE PEACE

Wilson

One: Peace be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Let us greet one another and pass the peace of Christ

SCRIPTURE LESSON

2 Timothy 1:1-9

Wilson

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

I am grateful to God—whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did—when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands, for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, in the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace, and this grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began.

MODERN LESSON

Still I Rise

Heidi Bridgeman

You may write me down in history
With your bitter, twisted lies,
You may trod me in the very dirt
But still, like dust, I'll rise.

Does my sassiness upset you?
Why are you beset with gloom?
'Cause I walk like I've got oil wells
Pumping in my living room.
Just like moons and like suns,
With the certainty of tides,
Just like hopes springing high,
Still I'll rise.

Did you want to see me broken?
Bowed head and lowered eyes?
Shoulders falling down like teardrops,
Weakened by my soulful cries?

Does my haughtiness offend you?
Don't you take it awful hard
'Cause I laugh like I've got gold mines
Diggin' in my own backyard.

You may shoot me with your words,
You may cut me with your eyes,
You may kill me with your hatefulness,
But still, like air, I'll rise.

Does my sexiness upset you?
Does it come as a surprise
That I dance like I've got diamonds
At the meeting of my thighs?

Out of the huts of history's shame
I rise
Up from a past that's rooted in pain
I rise
I'm a black ocean, leaping and wide,
Welling and swelling I bear in the tide.

Leaving behind nights of terror and fear
I rise
Into a daybreak that's wondrously clear
I rise
Bringing the gifts that my ancestors gave,
I am the dream and the hope of the slave.
I rise
I rise
I rise.

SERMON

A Spirit of Power

Rev. Carol Barriger

*God is calling to her people, God is calling to us all.
Are we listening? God is still speaking,
God is calling to us all.*

*"I will pour out my Spirit, I will pour out my power
Share my dreaming, shower you with visions,
I will pour out my power.*

Chorus:

*Pour out justice, overflowing!
Pour out mercy for this hour!
Pour compassion on your people,
Let your Spirit flow with power!*

*Love is moving through this body, Love is moving in this place.
Breathing through us, helping us grow stronger,
Love is moving through this place.

Offertory

God, We Praise You for the Women

Dan Damon

Pharaoh's daughter, like a mother, lifted Moses from a pool, brought him safely to the palace where a slave would go to school.

Mary watched the killing madness as her son died on the cross;
she who knew the joy of childbirth now was torn by bitter loss.

As her life drew on toward evening, after she had raised her own,
Lois held her baby grandson, told him of God's love made known.

God, we praise you for the women who have taught us to be strong, who have held us, who have raised us with a prayer and with a song.

*Doxology Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Creator, Christ and Holy Ghost. Amen

All Together We Have Power

Isaiah 58:12

The musical score is written for a two-part setting (Soprano and Bass) in 4/4 time, with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The melody is primarily composed of eighth and quarter notes, often beamed together in pairs. The bass line provides a steady accompaniment with a mix of quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics are printed below the staves, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a 'Fine' marking.

New Weekly Spotlight – Meet Our Deacons

This Week – Nancy Hill

We are continuing our spotlight of DCC's deacons, aka the Diaconate. This week, we spotlight, Nancy Hill.

Like Dottie Howell shared in her story here recently, I too grew up in a Lutheran family, mine in PA where I shared the family pew with four generations of my family. I went on to a Lutheran college, planning a ministering vocation though pastoring was not yet open to Lutheran women in 1960. But instead I chose teaching high school English, married Dave, raised two children and volunteered in churches we served in PA, NY, MD, NJ and CA. Several of these positions led to paid employment as church educator and as administrator of Presbyterian and ecumenical resource centers for clergy and laity in MD and NJ. During our time on Long Island, NY, Dave and I helped start a Methodist church which is now in its 55th year. There I led the Christian education ministry, exploring ways to reach our congregation. Not yet having a building, we held classes for our children every other Saturday morning in the basement of the parsonage and had a splendid time learning together!

Our move to CA in 1991 brought us to DCC where we found more good people and more opportunities to serve. Members for 33 years, we have long loved this church and its people. After serving in numerous roles, becoming a deacon brought the highlight of my service here and I was truly honored to be elected a life deacon in 2010. Sadly, physical challenges have prevented my active participation in recent years but I am grateful to remain connected in spirit with its ministry and members, being with you all for zoom worship every Sunday morning and carrying priceless memories and stories of many saints of this church. You continue to bless Dave and me with your kindness and caring. We have a son in NC, a daughter in Aptos, CA, five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Endless blessings!

Thursday, October 16th from 6:00pm–8:00pm

1. Economic Security for All Women
2. Equal Access to Quality Education for All Students
3. Social and Racial Justice for All
4. Increased Representation of Women in Leadership Roles

We'll discuss opportunities for local action on these priorities as well as non-partisan protests for democracy. Leave inspired with a renewed sense of urgency to help heal and strengthen our democracy. All are welcome and encouraged to attend. Click here to RSVP

Journeys in Faith Second Hour–Graceful Merit

Equality of opportunity guarantees a just society. Or does it? How do grace and faith inform our thinking about merit and a just society? In this session we will explore these questions and how they relate to meaningful work. This will build on the book “The Tyranny of Merit” by Michael Sandel.

Ron Elsdon will facilitate this session. Ron is the author or editor of several books, one of which is about business social responsibility.

DCC Endowment Looks to Put Funds to Work

If you have an idea for a program or activity that you'd like to see at DCC, the DCC Endowment Fund could be a source of funding to make it happen. This fund supplements our operating budget and can be used to support church activities that range from youth group and music programs to capital improvements.

All you need to do is fill out the Endowment Fund Request for Program Support and send your idea or proposal to the DCC mailbox (office@danvillechurch.org) or to DCC Endowment Committee Chair Pat McGrath at Pat504mcgrath@gmail.com. The DCC Endowment Fund committee will evaluate your request and make a decision based upon its value to our church community. So, send along an idea today!

Please submit your proposal no later than November 24, 2025 for consideration.

Interested in ensuring that more funds are available for church programs in the future? There's no better way than considering a contribution to the fund before year end or making DCC Endowment part of your estate plan.

To learn more about the DCC Endowment Fund and how you can support it, reach out to Pat McGrath or committee members Joy Davis, Syd Dent, or Bette Felton.
