OUR PURPOSE

Love God • Love Each Other • Be God's Love in the World

Danville Congregational Church acknowledges that the land this house of worship sits upon is the traditional, unceded land of the Ohlone and Bay Miwok people. We offer this land acknowledgment as a sign of respect, with the knowledge that this land was sacred before we ever arrived.

At Danville Congregational Church, we welcome you to a progressive spiritual community that is open and affirming, celebrates differences, and encourages alternate views. We explore the Bible with curiosity and enthusiasm, taking it seriously but not literally. Taking Christ's call passionately to love our neighbor, we extend our faith into action for the betterment of all. Wherever you are on life's journey, we offer you a place of peace and hope.

Danville Congregational Church is an Open and Affirming church, welcoming all of God's people—of diverse race, gender, sexual orientation, family status, economic condition, and physical, mental, and emotional ability.

A NOTE TO WORSHIPERS

Please take note of the emergency exits around you and locate the nearest one to you.

At DCC, wearing a mask during worship or inside the building is optional; please do whatever is comfortable for you. Please be aware of others' personal space and space yourselves out in the sanctuary accordingly. Please invite consent before shaking hands and hugging. The left-hand section of pews as you enter the sanctuary has been designated for those who are free of scents and perfumes.

Please silence your cell phone when you enter the sanctuary.

If you would like to use one of our listening assistance devices, please see the sound technician in the back of the sanctuary.

First-time visitor? Welcome to Danville Congregational Church! We are glad you are here with us today. Please register your attendance in the Blue Pew Book located in the pew and share whatever information you would like us to have about you. If you are interested in learning more about DCC, please see one of the pastors after worship in the narthex (lobby) or contact Joyce Klassen (joyce.klassen@comcast.net) our Community Life Commissioner. We look forward to meeting you!

The DCC sanctuary is available for meditation and quiet prayer during the week during normal business hours.

Please feel free to come by any time—enter through the office.

On another Day of Resting, Creator Sets Free (Jesus) was teaching at a gathering house. There was a woman there who had a spirit of weakness for eighteen winters. Her back was bent and twisted so she could not stand up straight. When Creator Sets Free (Jesus) saw her, he told her to come to him and said "Honored woman, you are set free from your weakness." He put his hands on her and right away she stood up straight and gave thanks to the Great Spirit. The headman of the gathering house was offended because Creator Sets Free (Jesus) had healed on the Day of Resting. He stood up and told the people, "Are there not six other days to do your work? Come on one of those days to be healed, not on the Day of Resting." "You who wear false faces!" he said to the headman. "Is there anyone who would not untie his horse on the Day of Resting and take it to a watering hole? This woman is a daughter of the Father of Many Nations (Abraham). Accuser (Satan), that evil trickster, has kept her this way for eighteen winters. Why should she not be set free on the Day of Resting? The enemies of Creator Sets Free (Jesus) were put to shame by his words, but the hearts of the people jumped for joy because of the wonderful things he was doing.

MODERN LESSON

Stand Firm in Faith
By Kelli Ritter

Alene Riley

When the winds howl loud and waters rise,
And shadows fall to cloud my skies,
A voice within begins to say,
"Stand firm in faith; you'll find your way."

The mountains shake, the earth may break,
But strength within will not forsake.
Though trials press and doubts appear,
My heart holds steadfast, free from fear.

The road is rough, the path unclear,
Yet trust will guide me, not despair.
For every valley, light is near,
A promise whispers, "Do not fear."

Though waves may crash and darkness fall,
I will not stumble through it all.
Hope is my anchor, love is my guide,
Faith is the flame I hold inside.

When storms may rage and battles roar,
I'll stand unmoved, my soul restored.
For grace upholds and mercy leads,
My faith will grow through every need.

So let the night or trials stay,
With God, I'll walk each step, each day.
Through every storm, my song remains:
"I stand in faith, unbowed, unchained."

Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

WORK OF THE PEOPLE

Pastor Lauren

*CLOSING HYMN

We Humans Build to Frame a Life

We humans build to frame a life with meaning, love, and feeling, but time or hate can bring collapse and loss can leave us reeling.
Let faithful souls from rubble rise to find new ways from sorrow,
and slowly, slowly form a shape to welcome God's tomorrow.

For ev'rything our hands construct will one day fall and crumble.
The God who is a carpenter creates from scrap and jumble.
And we can join the work of God to raise a new creation,
that what we do will long endure upon a firm foundation.

We dedicate ourselves today amid life's change and danger to build with God a house of peace for friend and foe and stranger.
Here may the peoples come and go, delight in shared endeavor, set free from terror, hate and war, alive in God forever.
